

AAVN Life Member Application

Life Membership is defined as someone who has paid annual dues to the AAVN for at least 20 years and has made significant contributions to the field of veterinary nutrition and/or the American Academy of Veterinary Nutrition (AAVN). Life members must be approved by the Executive Board and will be announced at the Annual Member Business meeting. Once approved, a Life Member will be exempt from paying dues. Life members may continue to hold office and vote. Applications should be submitted to Jen Gazdacko at aavnexecutive@gmail.com.
